This document describes the use of cookies on the website of the CBS Igate SIA, specifies the types and uses of cookies, as well as your rights to change the use of cookies based on your needs.

The Cookie Policy may be changed from time to time, so we recommend you to regularly read it. At the above of this Cookie Policy you can read when this Cookie Statement has been modified for the last time.

WHAT ARE COOKIES?

Cookies are small text files that websites save on your computer or mobile device whenever you visit those websites. Usually, the purpose of cookies is to make using the websites more efficient, and to provide certain information to their owners.

There are a few categories of cookies:

- ✓ essential cookies make it possible for the website to work properly, and in a way that is convenient for you. If you do not accept these cookies, you will be unable to use our website, or be able to do so with much difficulty. Essential cookies do not collect your data;
- ✓ execution cookies collect information on how you use our website, e.g. registering the pages you visit, thus making it possible for us to improve the operation and functions of the website. Execution cookies do not collect your data;
- ✓ functional cookies make it possible for the website to remember all your preferences, e.g. your language and text size, thus allowing us to make using the website more convenient for you. Functional cookies do not collect your data;
- ✓ third-party cookies make it possible for us to improve the functions of our website and adapt it specifically to your needs and interests, e.g. allowing you to watch YouTube or Vimeo videos on it. Depending on their type, third-party cookies can collect your personal data.

All cookies can also be split into two types based on how long they are stored on your computer or mobile device:

- ✓ session cookies only stay on your computer or mobile device for the current browser session, i.e. until you leave our website;
- ✓ persistent cookies are kept for a certain time after the end of the session, unless you delete them.

WHAT DO WE USE COOKIES FOR?

The cookies we use makes it possible for us to authenticate you and to process statistics on the use of our website and visits to specific pages. Activated cookies allow us to recognise you browser and provide certain additional features.

We use cookies to:

- ✓ establish/maintain your session on our website;
- ✓ provide statistics on website visits;
- ✓ memorise your preferences, e.g. your language;
- ✓ remember if you have (not) consented to the use of our cookies on our website;
- ✓ collect information about the use of the website, making it possible for us to analyse how well our website matches your needs, and introduce necessary improvements.
